

Call for Partners – Realstars

The anti-trafficking NGO Realstars is looking for partners to apply for a project within the Erasmus+ program. Our project is focused on the strategic partnership supporting exchange of good practices in the field of youth, especially by the field specific priorities 1.6 (page 109 in the Erasmus+ programme guide); “Promote better knowledge, recognition and validation of youth work and non-formal learning” in youth.

The aim of the project is to increase knowledge about Fair Sex – sex on equal terms – in the field of youth and to create strategic partnerships between NGOs in a Fair Sex Network.

We are looking for partners from Germany, Denmark, Finland, Great Britain, Spain and France. If your organization is interested in participating, write back with more information about your projects in the topic of gender. Interested organizations should have a PIC number

The objectives of the project are:

- To exchange experiences, tools, knowledge and skills on how to oppose sexual abuse of young people
- To share how to work with the Fair Sex-method
- To increase knowledge about what Fair Sex means, and its opposites, and how NGOs can apply this approach in their work.
- Create a Fair Sex Network with other NGOs, where we work together to strengthen young people with the Fair Sex method.

Events:

Training course, Gothenburg, Sweden, 4 days in October

Main objective: Workshops and lectures about Realstars work with youths with the Fair Sex method. Exchange experiences between the participating NGOs. Initiate partnership and creating a Fair Sex network between the participating NGOs.

Participants: 2-3 participants from each partner country.

Total group: 10 persons from different organizations + 2-5 trainers and support staff.

Partners:

All partners should be eligible entities for the Erasmus Plus Program (NGOs) and have an interest in the topic of Fair Sex and strategic partnerships for NGOs.

Realstars:

Realstars is an anti-trafficking NGO that works with strengthening the value of Fair Sex – that sex should be on equal terms, without violence or coercion – in the field of youth.

If you are interested to join us for this project, please contact us in good time before 20.04.16 (the deadline is on 26.04.16) at malin@realstars.eu